

Tuesday 10 December

'Bushfire for Bushfire' Raises $4000 for the Salvation Army Disaster Appeal

Bushfire Flame Grill Restaurant in Cairns has raised $4000 for the Salvation Army Disaster Appeal through their 'Bushfire for Bushfire' campaign.

Coinciding with the restaurant team's new 'back in black' uniform reveal, $5 of every Churrasco meal experienced between 22 – 30 November was donated to the Salvation Army Disaster Appeal. Cairns locals and visitors love their Churrasco and a whopping 800 experiences were devoured over the course of 'Bushfire for Bushfire', bringing the total donations to $4000.

Bushfire Flame Grill is an iconic experience in Cairns, serving Brazilian style Churrasco that promises a flaming great night on the vibrant Esplanade and for guests staying at Pacific Hotel Cairns. Visit www.bushfirecairns.com for more info.

Media Contact Details

Jessica Taylor – 0420735557

Group Marketing Manager – Pacific Hotels

www.bushfirecairns.com/

Left to right in the photo are: Tim Moloney (recently appointed GM at Pacific Hotel Cairns), William Charles and Muslina Mackenzie of Bushfire, Major Ben Johnson of the Salvation Army and Adam Thorpe, executive chef of Bushfire.

www.bushfirecairns.com.au